

Designed by Hong Kong: Meeting Young Design Talents

Fri 6 Dec, 2013, 16:00-18:30, 1/F Theatre Foyer

Ajax Law & Virginia Lung

Director of One Plus Partnership Ltd.

Graduating with distinction from Lee Wai Lee Technical Institute, Ajax Law continued his tertiary training at Polytechnic University of Hong Kong, where he completed a Bachelor of Arts (Hons) Interior Design degree course. Following graduation, Law imbued architectural and interior designs in Hong Kong with his unique interior design philosophy projecting One Plus into the public arena.

Graduating from University of Oregon, Virginia Lung had a unique talent, namely, the ability to create theme-inspired interior designs while maintaining the practical elements and functions of particular projects. They established the Hong Kong-based, award-winning interior design firm One Plus Partnership Limited in 2004. One Plus's creative inspiration for each project is focused on a specific theme. Over the years, One Plus has been totally awarded 172 awards (101 overseas and 71 Asian) from USA, Germany, Italy, England, Japan and Taiwan until now, including 9 《INTERIOR DESIGN》 Best of Year Awards. In the year 2012, One Plus was being honoured as the sole winner for Andrew Martin International Interior Designer of the Year Award. One Plus is the first and only Asian interior design firm to have been awarded this accolade.
